COFFROTH CHARGED WITH AN ASSAULT

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—James Coffroth, a local fight promoter, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with assault with a deadly weapon on Charles Dixon, a bookkeeper for Nelson at the Gansselson bout here on July 4. Dixon swore that on the night of the fight Coffroth assaulted him with a knife, cutting him about the head, the result of a quarrel over the counting of the gate receipts. Coffroth denies the charges and was released on cash bail of $200.

LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING.
CHICAGO, July 18.—Lillian Beatrice Watkins, the actress who had posed as a white woman and moved in the highest social circles, committed suicide by shooting. She had been betrothed to a white man who married another when he discovered she was a negro. Four months later he committed suicide. Miss Watkins decided life was not worth living.

BALL GAMES IN TWO PLACES TODAY

LEAGUE TEAMS PLAY IN TONOPAH AND MILLERS THIS AFTERNOON.

The league is getting down to business, the two games scheduled for today, the one at Millers between the Montanas and Millers, and the Eagles-Elks versus the Tonopah Mining on the local grounds, give promise of being a good day for the fans. The game on the local ground will be called promptly at 3 o'clock with Mullen as umpire. Doane will be pitted against Hurd and the work of both slab artists will be of high order. The general admission of 25 cents with 25 cents additional to the grandstand should influence a large crowd to attend as the kind of ball they have been putting up is really worth more than the price charged. The following is the line-up:

A special train will leave for Millers at 1 o'clock this afternoon and will carry a large contingent of baseball fans to witness the game there between the top notchers. The grandstand has been repaired and the weather man promises that there will be no rain, so the crowd should get a run for their money as the Millers people are no "slonches" themselves when it comes to rooters. The train will return immediately after the game. The following is the line-up of the teams:

TARPEY EXPRESSES THE RIGHT IDEA

SAYS TONOPAH IS IN BETTER CONDITION THAN ANY TOWN HE HAS VISITED.

Paul Tarpey, the machinery man, returned yesterday from a trip through California, having visited numerous towns between San Francisco and Los Angeles. Mr. Tarpey in the course of his travels comes in contact with the business and financial interests of the country and expresses as his belief that Tonopah is in a better condition than any city he has visited.

"The fact," said Mr. Tarpey, "that we produce the precious metals furnishing money for the country and in which competition plays no part, makes this community superior to all others. There is no waiting for the disposal of crops or the payment of money in the barter of real estate, but the coming in every month of the good, hard coin of the realm to be paid out for merchandise and distributed in this city is the thing that counts."

"I am in daily communication with Rawhide and authoritative sources. I can say that that camp will be one of the greatest producers that Nevada has had. Machinery is being sent into the camp and legitimate mining is being carried on. There are many new shippers being added to the list while the number of milling propositions are being added to daily. Considerable inquiry was made in towns in southern California as to the mining outlook, all evincing a desire to know what the future would produce."

SHERIFF OWENS IMPROVING.
Sheriff J. J. Owens is now on the rapid way to recovery, he having passed a comfortable day and night and is resting easily. This news is a source of gratification to the many friends of the popular official, who have been anxiously inquiring as to his condition.

EPSTEIN BUYS RESIDENCE.
H. E. Epstein has bought the residence of H. A. Tripp on Brougher avenue opposite Congressman George Bartlett's home and is now occupying the same.

UNION LEADERS BALK AT BRYAN

DETROIT, Mich., July 18.—Samuel Prince of New York, an organizer for the American Federation of Labor, stirred up an agitation in the local body last night that resulted in an official protest being sent to the national body against Samuel Gompers' proposal to take the federation into the Democratic camp this year.

Prince stopped over on his way from the Denver convention and made a speech at a meeting of the local organization exhorting the members to stand by Gompers' program. He created an uproar of objections.

Henry Kummerfeldt, jr., made an impassioned speech against the "tying up of the labor movement to the Democratic party by an official of the American Federation of Labor," as did also a delegate from the barbers' union. The result of the agitation was the adoption of a resolution directing an inquiry of the national officers as to what Gompers' program embraced and by what authority it had been entered upon.

CANNOT INFLUENCE LABOR.
NEW YORK, July 18.—"Gompers cannot call upon organized labor to support any political party, and as to influencing them by argument to vote for Bryan, labor men know how they are going to vote and they can think for themselves." So spoke today Edward Hourigan of the International Association of Machinists.

Julius D. Davis of the United Garment Workers said: "The same argument that appealed to workingmen against Bryan in his two former campaigns appeal to them still. There is no real argument to appeal to them against Taft, but there is a very solid fear of setting back matters when the tide of prosperity is beginning to flow again if a radical like Bryan is elected."

CLEVE H. BAKER.

The subject of the above sketch, Cleve H. Baker, is perhaps one of the best known young men in Nye county, if not in the state of Nevada. He bears the proud distinction of coming from a line of ancestors who have been identified with the growth of the state since its inception. His grandfather, the Hon. D. H. Hall, is one of the pioneers of Nevada, coming overland to Virginia City in the early '50s from the far east. For twenty-five years he was receiver of the United States land office at Carson. He is still hale and hearty and at the present time resides in Reno.

The young attorney's father, George W. Baker, is one of the best known practitioners before the bar in this state, having practiced at Reno, Pioche, Eureka and Belmont and his large clientele taking him into every city and town in the state. He was twice state senator from Eureka county and first district attorney of that county.

Cleve Baker is descended from a family of old-time Democrats who have ever been consistent and loyal to their party, but always placing country before everything else. Mr. Baker's father is the gentleman who first brought William J. Bryan to California in 1893.

Cleve Baker will be a candidate before the coming Democratic county convention for the important position of district attorney. By nature gifted with a pleasing presence,

MAY BE VICTIMS OF REVOLUTIONISTS

SAN BERNARDINO, July 18.—Relatives of L. S. Scott, former proprietor of the Evening Index of San Bernardino, believe that he and his wife and grown daughter, Miss Madge Scott, are victims of the revolutionists of Honduras. Homer R. Scott, a brother of L. S. Scott, has tried in vain to get in touch with his brother, who is engaged as president and manager of a large mining property at Mino de Oro, forty miles in the mountains from the capital of the republic and in an isolated country.

Scott went into Honduras the last time in February, taking with him from New Orleans his wife and daughter. Since then not a word has been heard from the party, either in this city or through the associates of the manager at New Orleans. Additional anxiety has come with the knowledge that Scott was one of the seventeen Americans who successfully held the capital, the city of Tegucigalpa, against the revolutionists last winter, for which they received the warm recognition of the officials of this country.

Ever since then the insurgent politicians have betrayed an enmity toward the Americans. Where the mine is located there are only natives, many of whom are in sympathy with the revolutionary movement. The Scotts are the only white people in that section.

NEGRO ESCAPES FROM CITY JAIL

HUT ASSISTANT TO THE DOG CATCHER IS RECAPTURED AT GOLDFIELD.

Jim Lindsey, a fly colored individual who has been assisting the leading man of the dogcatcher department in landing stray canines, attempted to raid an arsenal located behind the bar of the Pullman saloon Friday evening, for what purpose he will probably be called upon to explain before Judge Brisell. Chief Malley was telephoned to with a request that an officer be sent after the coon. Deputy Sheriff Logan was ordered to go after the man, and mounting his horse rode toward the place. On arriving there the culprit, scenting the appearance of the officer, started to knock down the recent sprinting records of the Marathon races into small chunks. Logan, who is an expert horseman, followed his quarry and wailing his lariat brought him up with a turn that must have led him to believe he was the victim of a Texas mob just stretching hemp. Bringing his prisoner back he was placed under lock and key in the city jail. Sometime during the night the negro cut a hole in the roof and effected his escape, hot footing it toward Goldfield. The police officials of the southern town were asked to keep a lookout for the man and he was captured last evening. An officer will be sent over today to bring the prisoner back and there is a 20 to 1 shot that he will not get away again.
